Rising Up: Hale Woodruff’s Murals at Talladega College

Resource List | September 2015

Hale Woodruff was an African-American artist and muralist. He is most well-known for his mural series at Savery Library at Talladega College, which he painted between 1939 and 1942. In this bibliography, we have included a selection of books about Woodruff, African-American Art, and titles on American mural painting in general. The items are in the collection of the Spencer Art Reference Library, unless otherwise noted.

If you have questions, please contact the reference staff at the Spencer Art Reference Library (telephone: 816.751.1216). Library hours and services are listed on the Museum’s website at www.nelson-atkins.org
